

Jasmine made a field trip to the Jewish Museum.

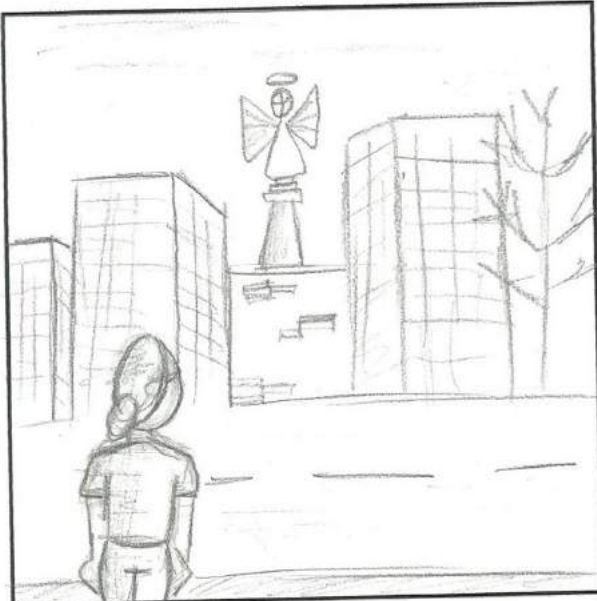

Her mother asked her to come home to stay with her little sister while big brother doesn't arrive

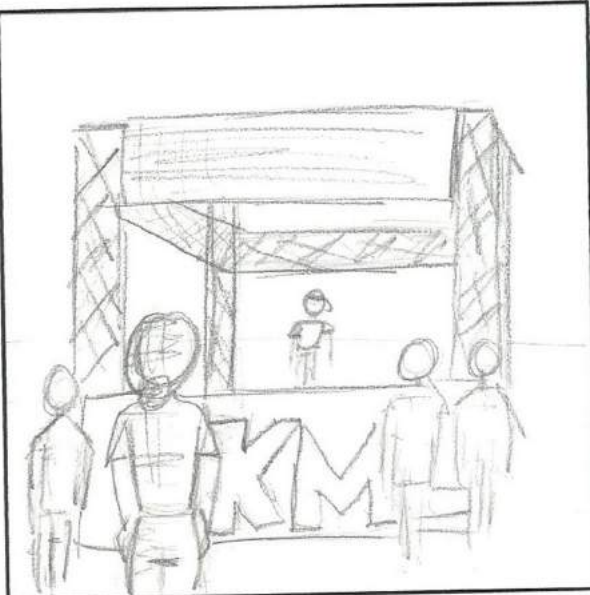

She is not very confident at the beginning

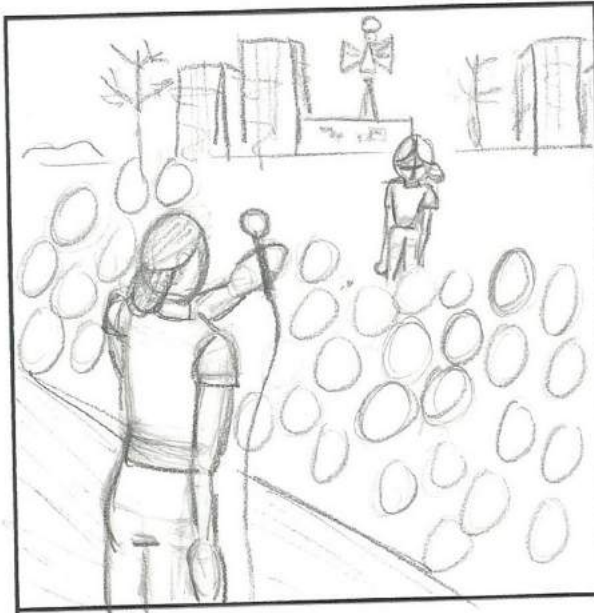

(She left the museum and is now outside)

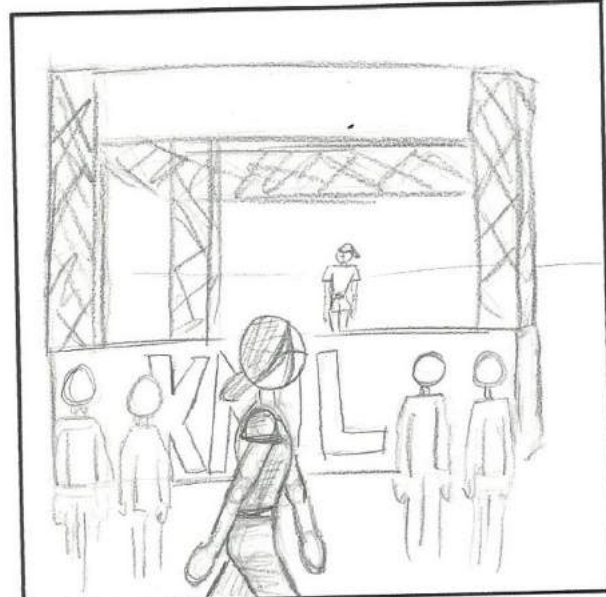

She looks at the angel (the angel represents guidance)

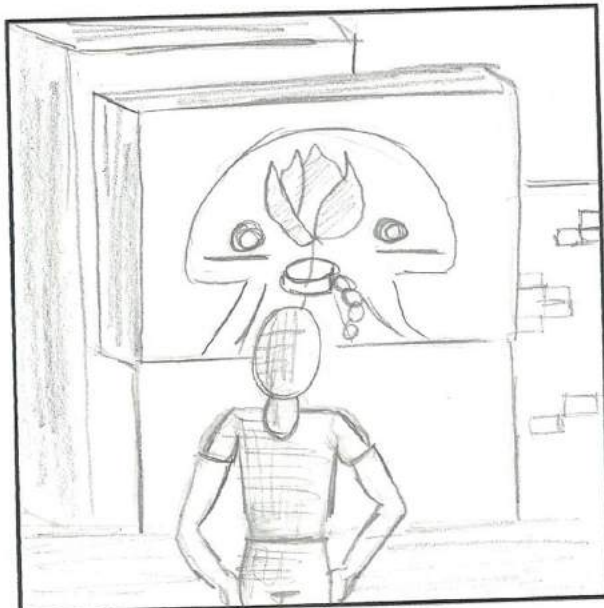

She get's distracted by watching an outdoor hip hop event.

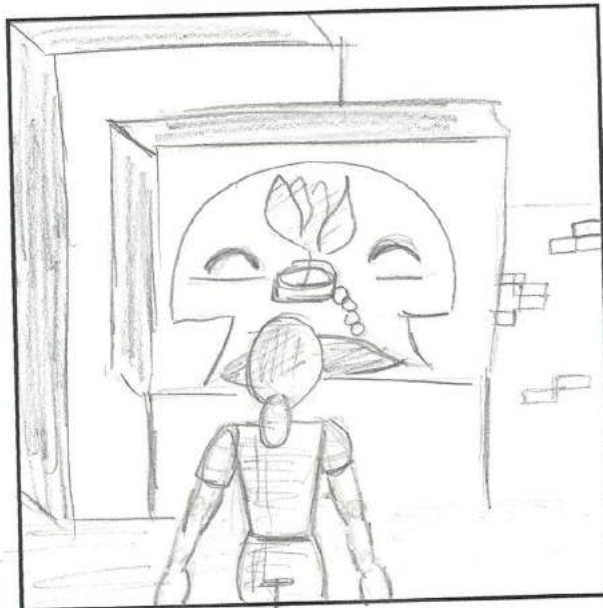

However she remembers that she needs to go home to watch her sister...

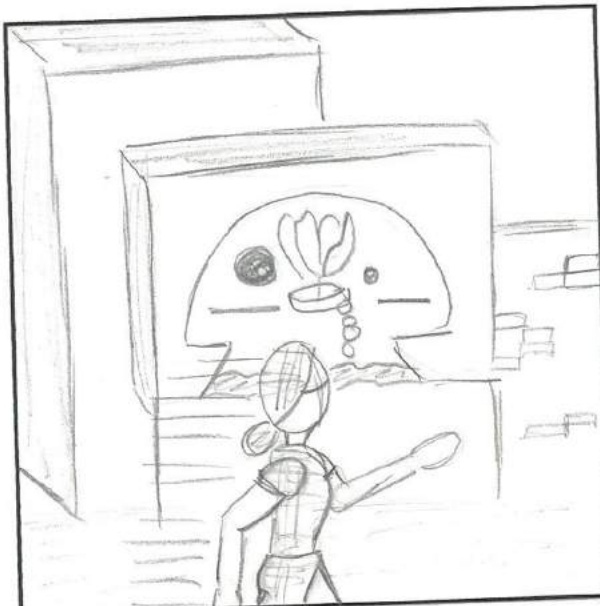

... and leaves the place

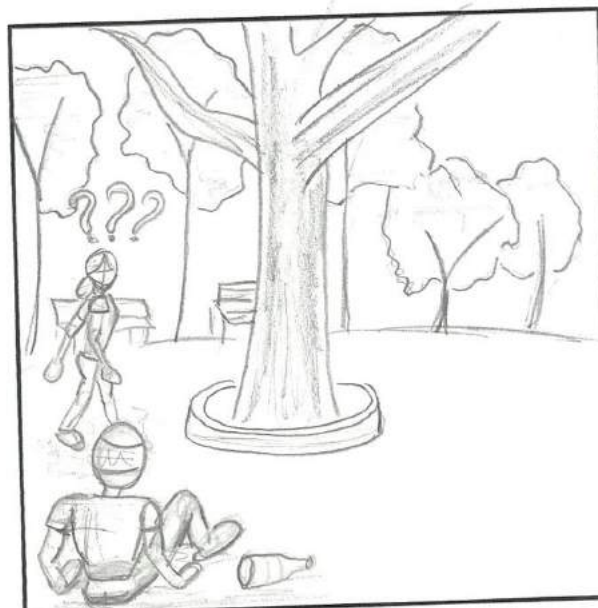

On the way, she finds an interesting art piece.

The art piece becomes alive and she got scared...

... and runs away

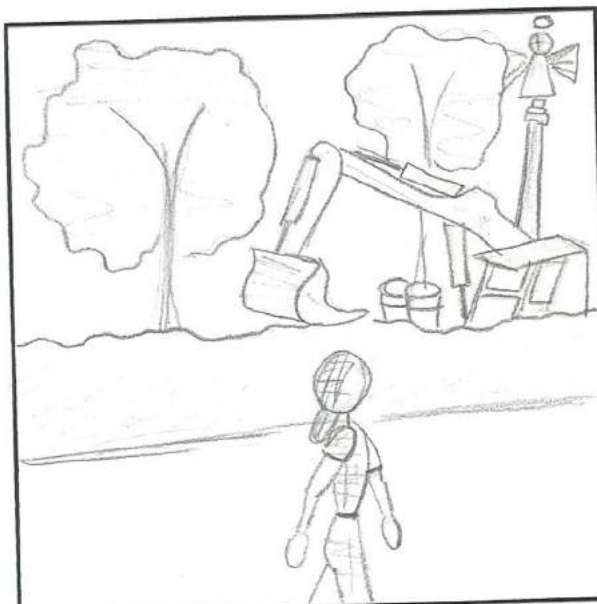

She went to the park and saw a drunk guy on the ground

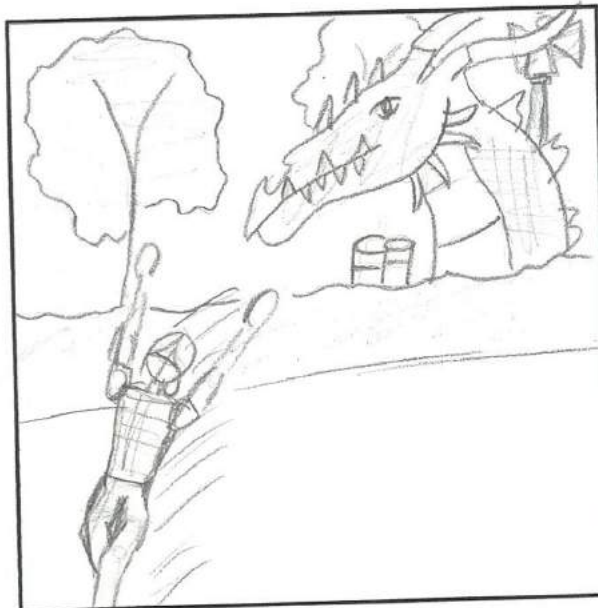

She hid behind a tree. However the drunk guy saw her and says "hello"

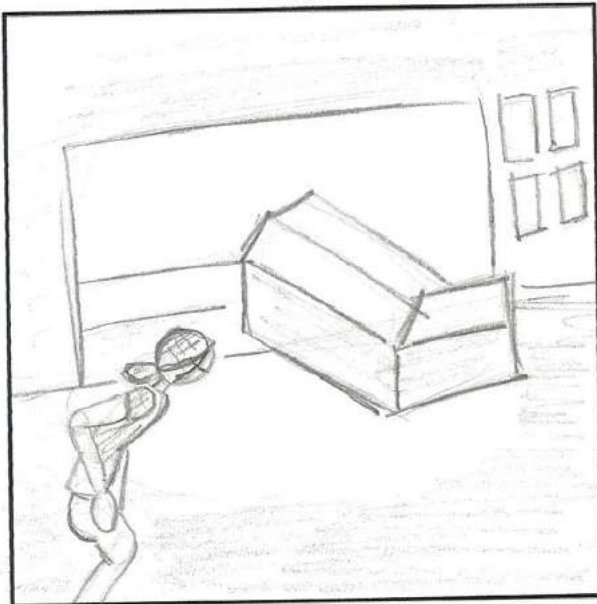

... and runs away

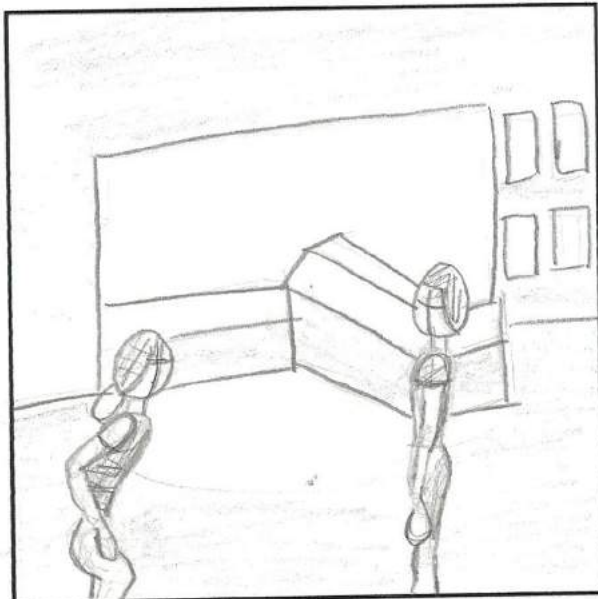

A few meters ahead she looks at a construction site...

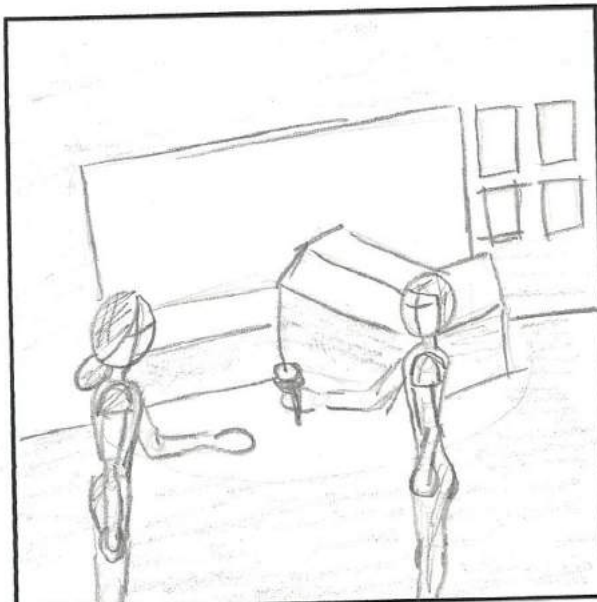

but in jasmine's imagination, the machine transformed itself into a dragon! She leaves the place screaming

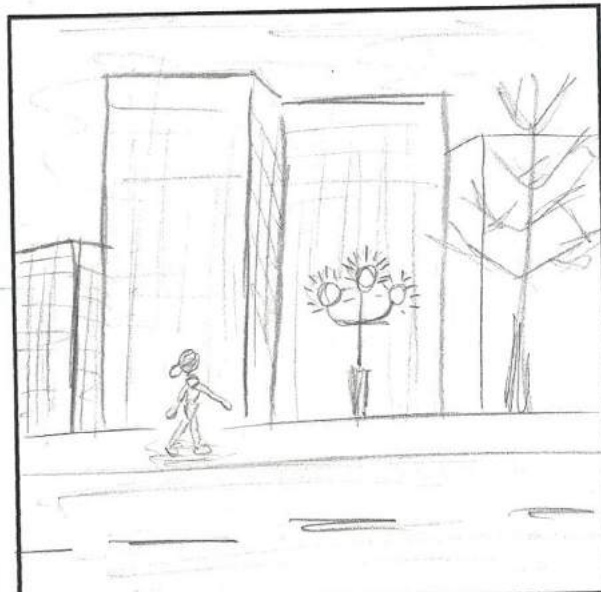

She run to an Arab shop that was near the park. She is extremely tired.

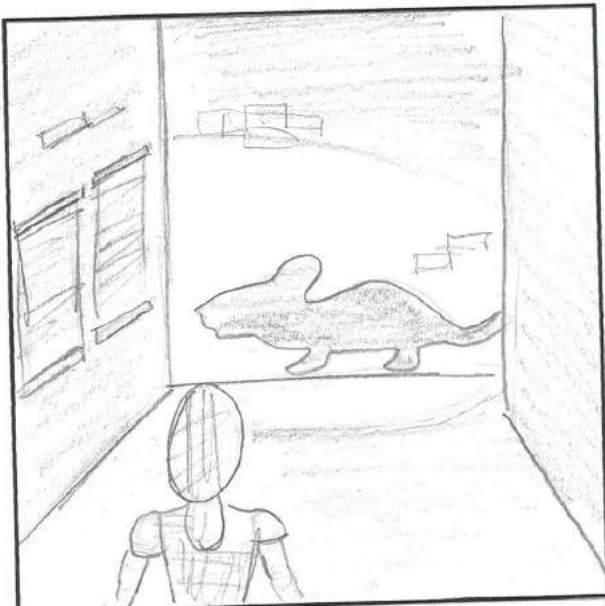

She finds a familiar neighbour. He knows that jasmine has a fertile imagination, especially when it gets dark

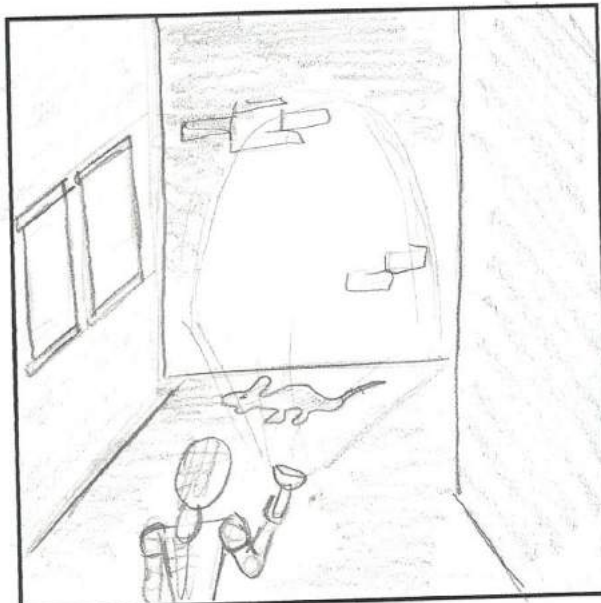

Therefore, he gives her a flashlight so that she can get home safely

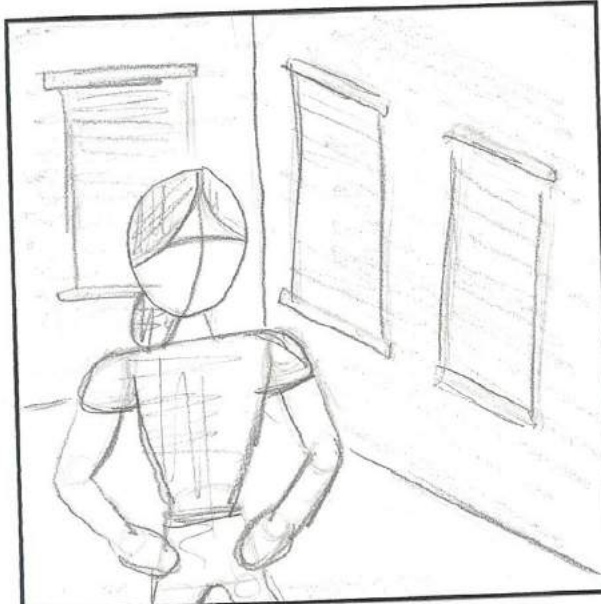

She goes home (it is already becoming dark)

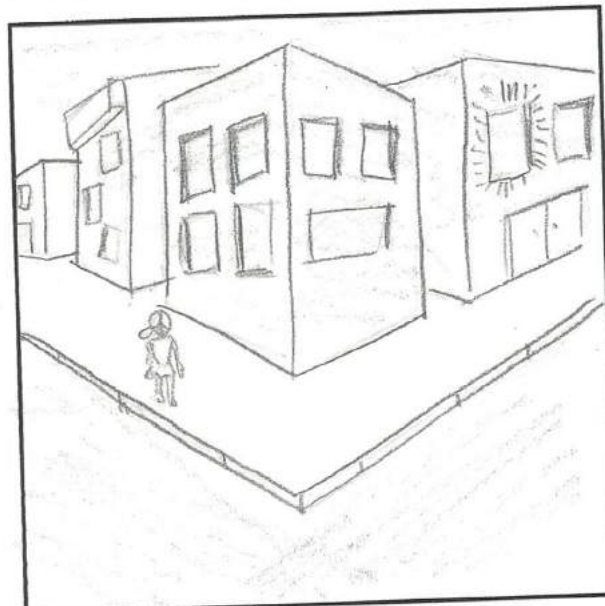

She goes through a dark alley and sees a shadow of a big animal!

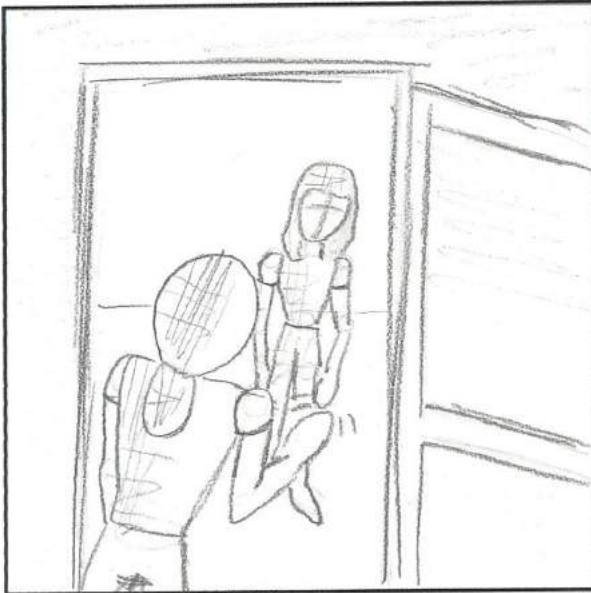

She points the flashlight toward it, in order to have a better look... it's only a small mouse

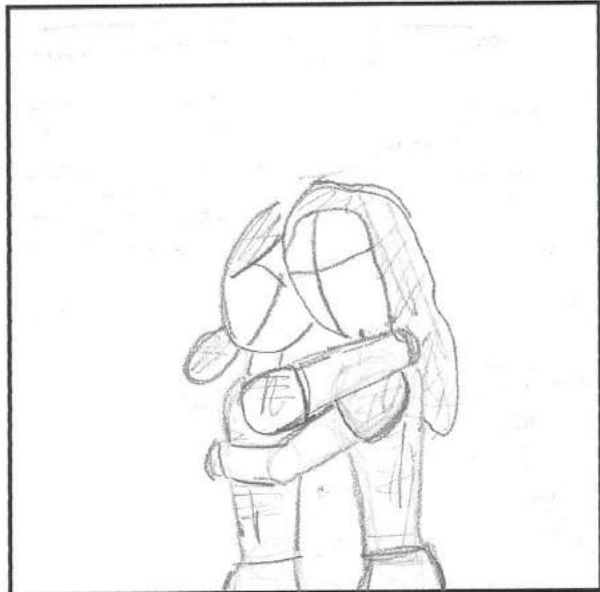

She proudly faced her fears...

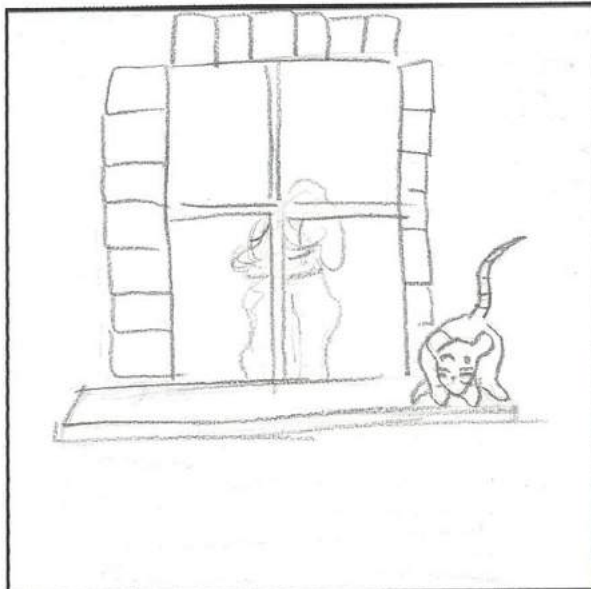

...and continued heading back home

She opens the door to say hello!

And gets hugged by her mom

The mouse blinks to the spectator

